

THE COMPOSITES INSTITUTE

JANUARY 2015

President Obama and Vice President Biden officially announce Institute for Advanced Composites Manufacturing Innovation in Knoxville, TN.

SUMMER 2015

- IACMI officially launches and hosts Inaugural Members Meeting in Knoxville
- IACMI partner, Purdue University, announced $50 million composites facility

FALL 2015

- IACMI Announces Call for Projects
- Vice President Biden announces IACMI scale-up facility in Detroit
- MOU signed with Composites Prototyping Center in New York
- New Partnerships Announced with ACMA and Composites One

WINTER 2016

- Over 300 attend IACMI Members Meeting and Detroit Auto Show in Michigan
- Technical Roadmapping event in Knoxville brings over 100 people to IACMI HQ

SPRING 2016

- Tennessee Workforce Training event in collaboration with Composites One and the Closed Mold Alliance
- STEM event to educate over 100 high school robotics students on composites and advanced materials
- Technology Roadmapping phase 2 in Michigan with over 110 attendees
- Toray project launch

SUMMER 2016

- 15 IACMI Interns in place at partner locations across the country
- Workforce training event at new Wind Technology Facility in Colorado
- IACMI MOU with Composites Recycling Technology Center and Peninsula College in Washington

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH ORNL

- Carbon Fiber Commercial Licensing Opportunity announced
- Global Innovation Award announced at International Composites Event in Paris, France